End of Year Report:

Only had 1 chapter meeting for the year during the 3rd quarter after the conference since the conference was virtual. Discussed how to possibly encourage greater engagement from mental health professionals in the chapter. Discussed need for president elect. Several past presidents offered to assist whoever served as president. After the meeting, received nomination for a president elect of JoEllen Berndt, and she agreed to serve as president for the upcoming year. The information from past presidents who volunteered to assist was passed along to her.
